. . .

The marriage is announced of Miss Nelle Wall, formerly of New Kent county, but more recently of Richmond, to Mr. Gordon L. Barnhill, of Asheville, N. C., at present the assistant book-keeper of The Times-Dispatch.

The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock on the evening of November 27th, at the parsonage of the Pine Street Baptist Church, the Rev. J. B. Hutson, the pastor of the church, officiating. The young couple are now established at, No. 616 East Franklin Street.

The Willing Workers of the Monumental Church will hold a sale for the benefit of the kindergarten at No. 103 South Third Street, to-day, December 9th, from 12 to 6 P. M.

Those wishing to do Christmas shopping will find all sorts of fancy and useful articles, including dressed dolls, collars and work-bags. If the weather is bad to-day, the sale will be postponed until the first clear day.

had to-day, the saic will be possiblely until the first clear day.

A quiet, but beautiful and impressive, ceremony was performed yesterday morning at 8 o clock, when Miss Ethel Caroline Shelburne and Dr. Thomas Demoral Armistead, of Roanoke, Va., were married in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Shelburne, of No. D5 East Franklin Street, the Rev. Dr. W. E. Evans, of Monumental Church, being the celebrant.

The bride wore a going-away gown of tailored cloth. The ceremony was witnessed by the families of bride and groom including Mrs. James Armistead, of Farmville, Va.: Mrs. C. E. Morton, of Crewe; Captain Frederick D. Cock, of Hampion, and Mrs. Louis Randolph Mayo, of Roanoke.

Immediately after the wedding Dr. and Mrs. Armistead left for a Northern trip. They will be at home after December 20th at No. 206 Eighth Avenue, Southwest, Roanoke, Va.

An informal gathering of the bridal party and a few intimate friends on Monday evening preceded the morning wedding celebration on the following Gay.

Parlors were canvased in white, and wedding celebration on the following cary.

Parlors were canvased in white, and most artistically decorated in pink and white chrysanthemums, palms and pink candles in silver candelabra. The bride-to-be was a vision of girlish beauty, in white satin gown, white gloves and silppers, as she stood to receive the congratulations of those present.

The only ornament she wore was a gold neck chain of fine and delicate workmanship, which had been in her family for generations.

The dining room, where the bride's health was drunk and the bride's loaf cut, showed typical December colors in red, holly, mistletoe and ground pine, making the wall and mantel decorations. Only the table, which held the wedding cake, had a placque of white chrysanthemums and maiden-halr ferns, and was bright with the gleam of cut glass and repouses silver.

Russell—Shields.

Russell-Shields.

Russell—Shields.

Mrs. Grace Shields announces the engagement of her daughter, Grace Elliott, to Mr. T. H. Russell, of New York.

The wedding will take place in April.

A delightful short Thanksgiving service was held at the Richmend Home for Ladies, No. 515 North Seventh Street, today, December 7th, Immediately after a meeting of the board, in which the old ladies joined with happy faces and grateful hearts. A rising vote of thanks was given by all in token of being so kindly remembered on Thanksgiving Day, and they take this method of extending the same to the many friends of that institution who so kindly remembered them with good gifts. The meeting adjourned with "Praise Go. from Whom All Blessings Flow."

At the meeting of the Milton Work Whist Club in the Woman's Club last afternoon, Mrs. Fairfax Montague and Mrs. C. E. Doyie scored north and south, Mrs. Benjam a Nash and Mrs. Basil Spalding east and west.

The Grace Church School of Arts will hold a Christinas sale Wednesday, December the 9th, at the rooms of the school, on Foushee Street, between Main and Franklin.

The St. Agnes Gulld of Monumental Church will have a runmage sale, beginning Monlay, December 14th. All friends of the zuild are asked to send contributions to Miss Julia Lee, No. 61 East Franklin, or Miss Krause, No. 4 West Marshall, or Miss Emma Mondy, at No. 711 East Clay Street.

The Kate Wheelock Whist Club met The Kate Wheelock Whist Club met last afternoon at 4 o'clock, with Mrs. D. T. Williams, of No. 210 East Franklin Street. Miss 'cobinson and Mrs. Willard Craig won north and south, Mrs. C. A. Page and Mrs. Correll east and west. The Loving Circle of King's Daughters will meet with Mrs. Williams this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The "Daughters of the King," an order of the church, whose work among women is similar to that of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood among men, will commemorate the formation of All Saints' Chapter to-day at 11 o'clock in All-Saints' Church. Barton Helgais, Monumental and Grace Barton Helgals, Monumental and Grace Church chapters are expected to partici-pate in this service, which will include corporate communion and an address by the Rev. Dr. Robert Strange, of St. Paul's Church. The order extends a cor-dial welcome to all.

The Confederate Memorial Literary Society will noid the annual meeting to day at 11 A. M., one hour earlier that usual. All annual reports will be read.

The Old Dualinion Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet with the president, Miss Lucy Claire At-kinson, of No. 811 East Grace Street, tokinson, of No day at noon.

The Junior Memorial Association met yesterday at 11 A. M. in Lee Camp Hail to consider the question of union with the Senior Association.

Mrs. Norman V. Randolph, as chalman of committee from the Senior Association, proposed the union. Miss Annie Gray and Miss Lucy Claire Atkinson were appointed from the Junior Association to meet the senior committee at a date to

What Shall We Have for Dessert? This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it to-day. Try pared in two minutes. No boiling! no baking! add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors:—Lemon, Orange, Raspberry and Strawberry. Get a package at your grocers to-day. 10 cts.

Jellas D

I don't see why I can't get boarders; others do. 200

don't rent 200

Remedy

'Phone 549, or send a postal to the Want Ad. Man. He will send you FREE his new plan, which is sure to fill your house at a small ... COST. ...

be designated by the latter and discus-he designated by the latter and discuss the question.

The Junior decided to contribute five dollars, through the president of the Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, to the Stuart monument. It was announced at the meeting that the badges for the Confederated Memorial Associations were ready and could be gotten provided endorsation from an association president accompanied the application.

The wedding of Miss Perrin Farrow, the eldest daughter of the late Colonel James Farraw, of Laurens, S. C., to Mr. Braxton H. Tabb, the president of the Globe Prote-live Insurance Company in this city, is scheduled for to-day, and will take place in Laurens.

Miss Eva Rebecca, the daughter of Mrs Martha E. Kerns, and Mr. W. Blah Matthews, will be married this evening, December 9th, at 6:30 o'clock, in Union Station Methouist Episcopal Church, this

An important meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy, at which all members are expected to be present, will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in Lee Camp Hall. Reports will be heard from the treasurer of the Davis Monument Association and from the chairman of the Richmond delegation to the Charleston convention.

Invitations, have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. James T. Parkinson, Miss Parkinson and Miss Marion Elise Parkinson, of No. 906 West Franklin Street, for Thursday afternoon next from 5 to 7 and for Thursday evening from 9 to 11 o'clock.

A meeting of the Richmond committee of the George Washington Memorial Association will be held Thursday afternoon at 4 in No. 226 West Franklin Street, and all members are urged to attend.

The seventh annual meeting of the association will take place December 14th, at Rauscher's, Washington, D. C.

Miss Martha Bowle, who is taking a course in Philadelphia this year preparatory to entering Vassar College, will return to Richmond for the Personal Mention.

Mrs. J. H. Matthews, after a delightful visit to her sister, Mrs. N. C. Shelton, left yesterday for her home in Martins-Va., to the regret of her many friends.

Mrs. Ruth Lofland, of the University of Virginia, is making a short visit to the city, From Richmond Mrs. Lofland will Professor Winchester, of Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., who will appear before the Woman's Club on December 28th, will be accompanied in his trip South by Mrs. Winchester.

Mr. J. Alston Cabell, who, with his wfo and children, is at Asheville, N. C., is much improved.

Coiled Low.

Coiled Low.

To-day the fashionable girl coils her hair low on her neck, and it is especially with this style of cofffure that she needs some dainty ornament as a finishing touch for the top of the coil. The very latest novelty of the moment is a graceful feathery spray in the form of an open pond lily and a bud. At one side of the coil of hair the lily and the bud are caught, while at the opposite side is a smaller bud and a leaf.

Another odd little hair ornament, which is pretty and original in effect, yet very simple to make, is of braided strands of sath ribbon, wide enough to make a two-inch band, which is only long enough to just outline the top of the coil, while at either side it is finished with a silk tassel.

Hair-nets are being worn again, and the girl who has light hair has her net studded with bits of shining jet, while for evening wear, the clever dark-haired girl has some threads of gold interwoven with the mesh of her net.—Miss Gould.

Judgment Rendered.

In the City Circuit Court yesterday juggment was rendered in the case of Edward Keck vs. C. F. Ray for $3.88. In the case of Louis A. Fox vs. the Michimond Passenger and Power Company, the jury has adjourned until to-day.

Breastpin is Found.

An old-fashloned breastpin was picked up Saturday night on Broad Street by Policeman Lange, it can be recovered by the owner at the Second Police Sta-tom by giving a description of the same.

Dr. Johnson's Book. The Life and Letters of the Rev. Dr. Robert L. Dabney, LL. D., by the Rev. Dr. Thomas Cary Johnson, of Union The ological Seminary, appeared in the book plores yesterday.

Licensed to Wed.

In the Husting Court's clerk's office yesterday a marriage license was granted to W. Blair Matthews and Miss Eva R. Kerns, both of this city.

Hustings Court. In the Hustings Court yesterday Emma Walker was given nine years for robbery, and William Fox got six months for robbery in the same court.

Qualified to Practice, Mesers James L. Bheiton and Thomas v. Moore yesterday qualified to practice law in the City Circuit Court.

A Northern Trip. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Cohen will leave seen.
A foreigner of my acquaintance made

TWO SEASONABLE PATTERNS.

to decide what to give a man for a Christmas present. Those fancy little be-ribboned things are so effeminite, and besides doesn't have a brush handy. There is better when evening comes, after a hard day's work at the office, to throw off his business coat-and his business cares able garments?

frogs and facings.

No. 6104.—Sizes 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches chest measure.

On receipt of 10 cents either of these patterns will be sent to any address. All orders must be directed to THE LITTLE FOLKS PATTERN CO., No. 78 Fifth Avenue, New York. When ordering, please do not fall to mention number.

ANIMAL STORIES FOR OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

The Meddlesome Giraffe. There were two giraffes who kept house together in the desert of Timbuc-toc. They were a young couple who had recently been married, and because of tly been married, and because of inquisitiveness, I have called them their inquisitiveness, I have called them Adam and Eve.

They were short and sleek, and spotted, with neeks no longer than a pony's, for in the days I speak of the 'giraffes ate grain like a horse, and did not bother, with trees.

One day Eve came running to Adam, saying: "Oh! Adam, I've found the greatest bargain ever laid on a counter."

TRY A PIECE WITH ME.

"Come and see," she cried, leaping as before, as though she had discovered a dollar shirt walst marked down to "innety-eight." "It's a lovely box of marshmellows all done up in sliver paper, left here by that last band of English soldiers. It will last me a month, at least, and all for nothing."

"You re not going to eat it, dear?"

"Most certainly I am. Did you ever know a bride to refuse candy?"

"Vell, I sha'n't touch it. I don't believe in eating strange foods," said the httbshad decidedly.

"Oh! try a piece with me, dear," she planded. "You know you won't refuse your Evie."

Saying which she took out a yeast cake from the box and ate it, and gave him a piece also." TRY A PIECE WITH ME.

from the box and ate it, and gave him a pieco also.
"It's pretty good," said both. "Makes yot thirsty, though," said she, after eating nearly the whole box.

Both took a large drink of water at the spring. But, terrible to relate, the years began to work and lifted their heads higher and higher, and strained their poor necks all out of proportion until they stood is feet high from toe to crown. "Oh, dear, I wish we hadn't eaten them," said Eve.

No Cozy Corners.

No Cozy Corners.

If one is building or moving into a new house or apartment, and can stay the hand of the plasterer in time, what is known as rough plastering stained to the desired color, makes a handsome background, having more depth than the calcimine. This is not suitable for upstairs rooms, however, as in bedrooms it has a rather bleak effect. Burlaps make a beautiful wall covering, but the grass-cloths now on the market are a delusion and a snare, for they do not hold their color well.

And do not let us, in the name of all that's consistent, have cosy corners stuck about at odd angles, furnished in a manner at variance with the rest of the house. Oriental corners in an empire room and Japanese corners in an empire room are among the atrocities I have seen.

A foreigner of my acquaintance made

No. 4488.

BOYS' BOX OVERCOAT.

Next to a boy's first trousers in his description.

It is not necessary or desirable to adopt one color or one style of decoration for a rown, it the main idea of hurmony prevails. As the American race is a mixed type, so the American home may combine the attributes, but let them be the best ones, of all the countries of the world. The cleanliness and homeliness of the English; the stability of the German, tempered by the grace of the French, and the rich coloring and comfort of the Orientals, all these qualities we have to draw from and make to serve we have to draw from and make to serve us.—The House Beautiful.

Don't Forget That Gun.

Don't Forget That Gun.

Dear Sandy Claws, I guess it's time I wrote you just a line.

To hope you'te well, an' tell you that I'm feelin' extry fine.

An' oh! I'm lookin' forward to your comin' roun' this year.

An' I thought I'd let you know just what to bring me, Sandy dear.

I know your awful good an' kind to little boys like me,

An' that is just the reason I'm a-writin' to you, see?

An' 'fore I mention other things, an' through the list I run

I'll be awful grateful, Sandy, if you'll bring along a gun.

You can bring along some peanuts—about a half a sack—
You needn't bring no apples, for ma she's got a stack,
An' we're all fixed up for turkey, and there ain't no lack of ple,
But drop a ton of candy an' lee cream as you go by.
The sled's wore out, an' so's the skates, so mind an' put 'em down,
An' fotch a norn that makes a noise that's heard all over town;
An' that ain't half that's on my list—in fact, I ain't legun.
Ohl make a note for oranges, an' don't forget that gun!

Pa says, dear Sandy, I should think at this time of the year
Of things besides just what you're gein' to bring me dear.
That I should bear in mind just what took place on Christmas Day,
Of "Lidin's glad, good-will to men," an' then goes on to say.
That you're only nice an' kind to little boys that's good.
Who never tear their pants an' clothes, but split the kindlin'-wood,
So, Sandy dear, remember me, an' all them bad beys shun,
An' bring what pa calls "peace on earth," an' don't forget that gun!
—Charles Neel Douglas, in Weman's

Paper Wafers.

Chop two tablespoonfuls of butter into two cupfuls of sifted flour, and put with it enough iced water to make a rather stiff dough.

Itoli out as thin as possible; cut into rounds with a biscuit cutter, and then roil out each of those to the thinness of paper. Put in a floured biscuit pan and bake in a quick oven.

Loyal Legion.

The Loyal Temperance Legion will meet Friday evening at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Barker, No. 111 1-3 West Clay Street.

Scrap Books,

To Preserve THE POEMS YOU

TIMES-DISPATCH

Our Second Holiday Proposition.

We want the purchasing public of Richmond to see our immense stock of Holiday Goods and to make it especially attractive to every visitor we will put on sale for this week

China Tea Plates Christmas Presents

That are Regularly Sold at from $2.00 to $3.00 a dozen.

At IOc Each.

Six Plates to a Customer.

Our 25c, 50c and $1.00 Counters Are Filled With Bric-a-Brac, Salads Cake Plates.

and many other Articles, all marvels in value and every piece a creation of art.

AN UNEXCELLED STOCK OF

Hand-Painted China, Rich Cut Glass, Sterling Silver, Marble Busts and Pedestals, Jardineres, Umbrella Stands, Lamps, Clocks. Bronze Figures, Brass Fenders and Fire Sets, all of the newest designs and never failing to interest the lover of Fine Art

Toys and Dolls

(On Second Floor.)

Our 5c, 10, 25, 50, 75c and $1.00 COUNTERS OF Toys and Dolls are laden with the latest novelties of the European markets. We call especial attention to our large line of Velocipedes, Trycycles, Patrol Wagons, Farm and Express Wagons.

The E. B. Taylor Co.,

IOII East Main Street,

9 East Broad Street

WE SELL FOR

POEMS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.-Prof. Charles Eliot

O, For a Tongue.

By THOMAS MOORE.

Of the following feroclous lines it may be truly said that they had been almost forgotten when President Cleveland, in 1835, restored them to popular favor. In a letter to Mr. Catchings of Mississippi Mr. Cleveland commented harshly on those democratic senators who had mulliated the Wilson tariff bill, a bill satisfactory to the majority of the democratic party. He said he took his place "with the rank and file of the democratic party ... who have marked the places where the deadly blight of treason has blasted the councils of the brave in their hour of mich. The extract is from "Lallah Rookh," Moore's long poem, the brave in their hour of mich. India. The lines are spoken by the pow who may be proved by the provide Lallah Rookh the name in English means. Delin, India, to Bucharia. The poet's them is 'The Fire North Strang of Bucharia, from the Arabb the Secret passage to the fire-worshippers' string hold. It has been said that there are fine looking fruit trees on the sides of the bead sea, but that their fruit is full of sales. "Lakes that shone in mockery" refers to the stimospheric illusion known as mirage. The prophet appealed to is probably Mahomet.

II for a tongue to curse the slave, Whose treason, like a deadly blight, Comes o'er the councils of the brave,

And blasts them in their hour of might! May Life's unbless-ed cup for him Be drugged with treacheries to the brim,-With hopes, that but allure to fly,

With joys, that vanish while he sips, Like Dead Sea fruits, that tempt the eye, But turn to ashes on the lips!

His country's curse, his children's shame, Outcast of virtue, peace, and fame, May he, at last, with lips of flame On the parched desert thirsting die,-While lakes, that shone in mockery nigh, Are fading off, untouched, untasted, Like the once glorious hopes he blasted! And, when from earth his spirit flies, Just Prophet, let the damned one dwell Full in the sight of Paradise, Beholding heaven, and feeling hell!

This series began in the Times-Dispatch Sunday Oct. 11, 1903. One is published each day,

OF HUMAN INTEREST: STORIES OF THE DAY

Canine Knew His Business.

Canine Knew His Business.

A certain officeholder decided to buy a dog, In roply to his "ad." a man called at his office with an intelligent looking animal, that he immediately took fancy to, though he deemed it advisable to first inquire into something of its characteristics, says the New York Times.

"What can he do?" he asked.

"Oh, sir, he can do anything, If you've lost anything, sir, he'll go direct to the place where you lost it. He'll.—

"By the way, I've just missed my glove. Do you s'pose he could find it?"

"Certainly, sir, Just jet him snift at you'r hand."

The officeholder held his hand to the dog's nose, and the animal trotted discreetly off. Presently he returned and with a joyous wagging of the tail deposited his offering at the officeholder's leet.

At the same moment the olick of the

with a joyous wassing by the children posited his offering at the officeholder's leet.

At the same moment the click of the typewriter in the next room ceased, A girlish form appeared in the doorway.

"My sush ribbon," cried a high sweet voice, "my sush ribbon! The dog has my sash ribbon!"

"The officeholder's face turned a dull red. He cust a furtive glance at the man, dived into his pocket and hauled out a bill."

"I guess the dog'll do," he said quietly,

A Latter-Day Fable.

U. S.

Going, But Where?

Probably there is no one in this section who has attained such a widespread notoriety in a similar longith of time an Phineas G. Wright, better known as "Gard" Wright.

This unique specimen of humanity has by a simple declaration of his belion stirred the deep recesses of the mind of many more of the words, with a simple some of the words of the words of the words of the stands of the scape of this ulterance, which Mr. Wright has not chiscled on his mainment monument in the Grove Street Cemetery, is shown by the numerous letters received by him from almost every State in the Union, in regard to the stand he has taken.

Yet all these communications go to show the eagerness with which the slightest straw relating to immortality is grasped by the world at large.

Mr. Wright is thore ignly honest in this belief, and refuses to budge at the most convincing argument, his belief will be tested.—Putnam (Conn.) Observer.

the Ten Dollars. When the Big Boy ran up to inflict Punishment on the Little Boy, the Man said he could not bear to see Little Boys fight, so he held the Big Boy off while he ato up all the Apples numself.

This fable tendies us that the Panama Canal must and shall be constructed by U. S.

Lawyers Talk Man to Death.

A Latter-Day Fable.

A Man was once walking along the fighway, when he met a flig Boy and a Little Boy carrying a Basket of fine Apples between them, says Life. The Man wanted the Apples very badly, and he offered the Big Boy Thought the Apples between them, says Life, The Man wanted the Apples very badly, and he offered the Big Boy Thought the Apples were worth more than Ten Dollars, for them. But the Big Boy thought the Apples were worth more than Ten Dollars, and he refuned to sell, though the Little Boy start, and he refuned to sell, though the Little Boy start, and the Man tipped a significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence.

By begged him to, a the Man tipped a significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence. The work on, the Man tipped a significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence. The work of the Man tipped a significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence. The work of the Man tipped a significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence. The work of the Man tipped a significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence. The work of the Man tipped a significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence. The work of the Man tipped a significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence. The work of the Man tipped as significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence. The work of the Man tipped as significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence. The work of the Man tipped as significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence. The work of the Man tipped as significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence. The work of the Man tipped as significant volumes of evidence and reading matter in evidence.

AT CUT PRICES.

ANDERSON 710 MAIN STREET.

We Are Not Good Talkers

Don't have to be as the Carriages of the manufacturers we represent sell on their merit. Quality and price does for us what clever talk is forced to do for others,

We Represent the

Toomey Racing and Road Carts and Brockway and Buckeye,

Columbus, Ohlo. Stylish, up-to-date and high-class pleasure and business vehicles. Re-pairing of all kinds and rubber-tiring done. Bargains in several high-class Victorias and Station Wagons, also one Automobile.

Smith & Murphy,

314 North Fifth St.

L. J. Hayden PURE HERB MEDICINE.

Is one of the Greatest Healers of the Sick on Earth. Cures all Diseases or no Charge. I cure all diseases that are known to the human race or no charge, no matter what your disease, sick ness, or milliciton may be, and restors you to perfect health. I cure the following disease, sick ness, the latest perfect health. I cure the following disease, Heart Disease, Consumption, Consumption, Consumption, Consumption, Constipation, Constipation, Constipation, Constipation, Constipation, Constipation, Constipation, and Acties of the Middle Colus, Brouchial Pains, and Acties of the Middle Colus, Brouchial Troubles, Sores, edin Diseases, all Itching Sentrolines, Sores, edin Diseases, all Itching Sentrolines, Sores, edin Diseases, all Itching Sentrolines, Sores, edin Diseases, all Itching Sententials of Middle Controlines, Carbunces, Sores, edin Cancer, the worst forms, without the sentrolines of kind for instruments; Eccoms, children of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, with the controlines of the Cancer, and the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, which is the controlines of the Cancer, the worst forms, which is the controlines of the Cancer of the Cancer, the worst forms, which is the

LANCASTER & LUCKE.

Bankers and Brokers, RICHMOND, VA.

High-Grade Southern Securities. Correspondence Solicited.

It's the hardest matter in the world can make it up and have just the color and trimming desired at about one-fourth the cost of the ready-made ones. Flannel, serge, brocaded silk, velvet and printcd velveteen are materials usually employed. A pretty development would be in gray printed velveteen, using black

Next to a boy's first trousers in his after memories comes the overcont that made him feel so like a "grown-up man." He will remember how he discarded girlish coats and put on one that looked like pape's. With such a pattern as this to follow, overy boy should have his wish gratified—for at very little cost the moths or can make a most satisfactory garment. The pattern is simple, and the most inexperienced seamstress will have no difficulty in building a stylish little garment equal to what the tallor would charge at least ten dollars for.

The coat may be made with one cape, two capes, three capes, or w'tt out any at all—in which case it is the real Russian is tyle, buttoning close up to the neck. It may also be worn with or without the belt. The coat is cut on the same lines as a man's cont. having two piece sleeves and overlapped seams, so that a real tailor-made finish can be given the coat by the most inexperienced seamstress, if she knows how to stitch nicely. Chevlot, Melton, Covert and Cordu oy are materials usually employed.

No. 4488—Sizes, three, four, five, six, zeven, eight and nine years.

the blunder of speaking of these places as "crazy corners," which isn't a bad description.

It is not necessary or desirable to

Handsome

OUGHT TO KNOW. Prices, 15 and 25 cents. By Mail, 35 and 45 cents.

Business Office.